

As If For the First Time

words & music by Carol Damonte

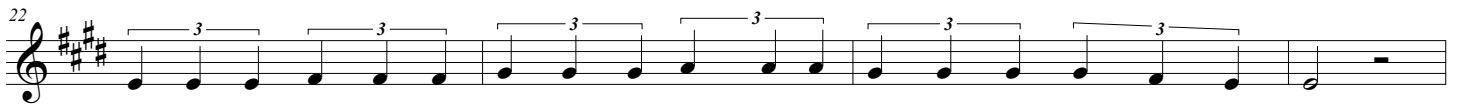

Things were quite dif - ferent be - fore, per-func-tory, hap - haz - ard, and more. But God seems to set pris - oners free, re - mind - ing the blind they can see. Through some-one stepped in and said life now be - gins, that some-one I could - n't ig - nore.

giv - ing I've changed and my heart's re - ar - ranged, He's do - ing His good work in me.

When giv - ing can he - al and bless, it be - comes just like tak - ing a breath. It Scrip - ture has shown us the way, tra - di - tion has led us to pray, lifts up the soul, mak - ing bro - ken lives whole, it of - fers the wear - y a rest.

rea - son can teach us so love then can reach us ex - per - ience is hap - pening each day.

See now, ev - ery - thing looks dif - ferent, as if for the first time,

I can real - ly give. Hey now, lis - ten, I can bring a change on, and now for the first time
