Wednesdays, 6:00–8:00pm
January 9–February 20

Sunday, January 6, 2019
John 1:1-5, 9-14

Faith deepens when we engage together in learning and discussion about who God is and how we are called to live. You are invited to use this opportunity to deepen your walk with Christ through a regular, intentional, authentic community space.

Gather for dinner in Creekside Center at 6:00pm. Dinner costs $10/ adult (age 18+) and $5/child, or $25/family. Registration helps the organizers get a total headcount for dinner. Classes meet at 7:00pm.

Survey 103	Application 103	Theology 103	Bible Literacy 103
I Saw God at the Movies: Movie Class With CJ Arnesen, Trevor Caudle, and Rev. Sam Blewis	Good Grief With Leslie Williams-Hurt	Faith You Can Give Away With Rev. Kathi McShane	A Historical Introduction to the New Testament With Dr. Michael Penn
Look at Oscar-nominated movies and explore what they might have to teach us about our faith. (Note: This class goes through February 27.)	Grief is an emotional experience—no matter how hard society tries to act as if sad feelings don't exist. Find support and healing in a safe place.	Mentors and parents of confirmands, plus everyone who could use a faith "booster," will review the basic tenets of Christianity. (Note: This class starts January 16.)	A Stanford professor of religious studies will guide an interactive exploration of the New Testament's history. Beginners welcome.

We offer these questions for reflection during the service or during your week. Ponder them yourself, or discuss them with friends. Some of our small groups use them for discussion; if you would like to participate in a group, visit www.laumc.org/grouplife.

1. Who are some people that you have written off?
2. Where are some places that it is hard for you to believe God's light shines?
3. Who are some people on whom it is hard to believe God's light shines?
4. What would it look like for you to see God's light shining on all people?
5. How can you choose to live in the light and acknowledge God's light in others?
